

Dr Darren BRYANT

The Hong Kong Institute of Education, Hong Kong

Email: dabryant@ied.edu.hk

Darren Bryant is Assistant Professor in the Department of Educational Policy and Leadership at the Hong Kong Institute of Education. His research interests include middle leadership, leader preparation and the nexus of reform and school-based change. He has conducted studies related to teacher collaboration around school-based curriculum, innovation sustainability, international leader preparation and implementation of formative assessment. Darren also works as Managing Editor for the Journal of Educational Administration and is coordinator of the International Executive Master of Arts in Leadership and Change.

