

Dr Helen GOODE

University of Melbourne, Australia

Email: hngoode@unimelb.edu.au

Helen Goode has worked in primary, secondary, tertiary and adult education in the State, Catholic and Independent Schools in Victoria, Australia. In addition to her work as a sessional lecturer in the Master of Educational Management and Master of Literacy Leadership and part time research assistant at Melbourne University, she operates her own educational consultancy business. She is a member of the International Successful School Principal Project (ISSPP) and presents frequently at conferences both in Australia and overseas. For current research focus is 'Successful School Principalship: From Success to Sustainability'. Her extensive networks included membership of the Australian College of Education (MACE) and the Australian Institute of Management (AIMM) as well as current membership of a number of educational Boards of Management, Councils and Commissions. Currently she is a member of The Geelong College Council and the Education Committee of the College, an adviser to the Presentation College, Windsor Board of Management and its Chair, and a member of the Governing Education Council of the Presentation Sisters. In 2004 she was made a Fellow of the Australian Council of Educational Leaders.

