

Inclusive Education In the New Millennium

Editors:

Martha Leng Han Hui

Christopher Robin Dowson

Mabel Gonzales Moont

Foreword by

Nick Crawford JP, BBS

Published by

Education Convergence

The Association for Childhood Education International

- - Hong Kong & Macau

Sponsored by

District Teacher Network

Contents

Contributors		ix
Foreword	Nick Crawford, JP, BBS	xvii
Preface	Ramsey Koo and Pak Hong Cheung	xix
Acknowledgment		xxiii
Introduction	Martha Leng Han Hui, Christopher Robin Dowson and Mabel Gonzales Moont	xxv
 Section 1 History and Development of Inclusive Education
1.1	Inclusive Education in Canada Linda Siegel	2
1.2	The Development of Inclusive Education in Hong Kong Martha Leng Han Hui and Christopher Robin Dowson	11
1.3	On the Way to Integration Galena Golouhova and Julia Iordanova and Fieodor Vainstein	25
1.4	The Development of Education for All in Finland Markku Jahnukainen	31
 Section 2 Philosophy of Inclusive Education
2.1	Inclusive Education: A Reality in South Africa Sigamoney Naicker	40
2.2	Inclusion or Integration for Hong Kong? Au Mei Lan and Martha L.H. Hui	49
2.3	Building An Inclusive Community Phil Bayliss	58

Section 3 Policy and Practices in Inclusive Education

3.1	Blurring the Boundaries Through Collaborative Teaching Elizabeth Whitten and Lisa A, Dieker	70
3.2	Contradictions in the Pursuit of An Inclusive School: An Update on Norwegian School Policy Ragnar Thygesen	80
3.3	Policies, Implications and Training Needs Cindy Terry	87
3.4	Overcoming Barriers to Inclusive Schooling: Values, Policies & Practices in A Modern World Patricia Potts	97

Section 4 Successful Implementation of Inclusive Education

4.1	Person Centred Planning: Support for the Transition Process and Developing Self-Determination Sheri B. Moore	106
4.2	Successful Implementation of Inclusive Education in Turkey Hakan Sari	113
4.3	Successful Implementation of Inclusive Education: From Debate to Data Smita Shukla-Mehta	125
4.4	Reality, Reaction and Direction for Secondary Inclusive Education in the United States Lisa A. Dieker and Elizabeth Whitten	137
4.5	How Can Inclusion be Effective? A Practical Approach to Meeting All Learners' Needs Jeffrey P. Bakken and Festus E. Obiakor	148
4.6	A Study of Expectation and Quality of I.C.T. in Inclusive Education. Jason K.Y. Chan, K.F. Sin and Eunice P.Y.Yim	160

Section 5 Reflections from Practitioners, Students and Parents

- |     |  |     |
|-----|--|-----|
| 5.1 | Inclusive Education: Views and Concerns of Four Major Stakeholder GroupsAnne Jobling, Christina E. van Kraayenoord, Alison Watt and John Elkins                                  | 174 |
| 5.2 | The Blue BalloonNaomi Woronov  | 190 |
| 5.3 | Teacher and Parent Perception of the Barriers to Inclusive Education: Identification and Comparison of the Barriers Between Elementary and Secondary Schools in KoreaDong-il Kim | 200 |

Section 6 Research and Case Study in Inclusive Education

- |     |   |     |
|-----|---|-----|
| 6.1 | Inclusive Myths and Administrative ErrorRobert A. Henderson                                     | 212 |
| 6.2 | Paraprofessionals in Inclusive Classrooms: Roles and ResponsibilitiesJoy F. Xin                 | 218 |
| 6.3 | The Realization of An Ideology: Which Factors Make the Inclusive School Succeed?Ragnar Thygesen | 229 |

Section 7 Working Towards A Global Effort

- |     |  |     |
|-----|--|-----|
| 7.1 | Challenges and Successes in Implementing Inclusive Education in Eight Developing Countries in Asia and the PacificDavid Mitchell   | 238 |
| 7.2 | Lessons Learned from More Than 20 Years of Research and Practice in Developing and Sustaining Inclusive Education in Developed and Developing NationsRichard A. Villa and Jacqueline S. Thousand | 255 |

Section 8 Looking into the Future

8.1	Facing the Challenges at Last: A Critical Commentary on Hong Kong's Approaches to Integration and Inclusion Nick Crawford	278
8.2	Reforming Teacher Preparation Programmes to Include All Students: A Look into the Future Silvana M. R. Watson, Peggy P. Hester, and Allen G. Sandler	294
8.3	Hong Kong Needs to Form Its Own Philosophy for Inclusive Education Mabel Gonzales Moont and Martha Leng Han Hui	308
	Index	323