

INTRODUCTION

The information given in this publication, unless otherwise stated, is accurate as of July 2023, and does not reflect any additions or alterations made after that date. Every effort has been made to ensure that the information contained in this Calendar is correct. Changes may be made from time to time and the University reserves the right to make amendments to any information contained in this Calendar without prior notice. For the latest updates, please refer to the websites/announcements of the respective Faculties/Departments/Offices.

In the event of inconsistency between information contained in this Calendar and any other published information of the University or where an interpretation of the Calendar is required, the decision of the University shall be final.

The logo of The Education University of Hong Kong is the visual representation of the University. The orange sun above five green leaves in the University logo is derived from the visual identity of the former Hong Kong Institute of Education and its five constituent colleges - the Grantham College of Education, the Hong Kong Technical Teachers' College, the Institute of Language in Education, the Northcote College of Education and the Sir Robert Black College of Education. The sun symbolises a vital life-force, esprit de corps, and high standards and goals, achievements and success. The five luxuriant leaves symbolise the vigour, energy, and flourishing growth of youthful aspirations.

